E. H. POLLARD, Esc. The Scheme of a Local Bank for this Colony with Branches at the most important places in China, has been in contemplation for a very long period. The local and foreign trade in Hongkong and at the open ports in China and Japan has increased so rapidy within the last few years, that additional Bunking of Corporations whose head quarters are in Eng-land or India, and which were formed chiefly their amusements and alcounters for cutering to with the view of carrying on exchange operations between those countries and China, are scarcely in a position to deal satisfactorily with the local trade which has become so much more extensive and varied than in former years. Title deficiency the Hongkong and Shangha

Banking Company will supply, and will in fact assume the same position with relation to this Colony as the Presidency Banks in India, or the Banks of Australia in their respective localities. The Establishment of a Mint in Hongkong roviding an adequate supply of proper currency will render a local Banking medium essential carry out its operations, and the almost certain disappearance of the existing Compradorio system (so far as money is concerned) will also ensure Banks becoming in course of time the exclusive medium for the transaction of the monotary ope rations connected with trade. zed for the purpose of carrying on the Banking For the anticipated success of this enterprise and Exchange business, in all its branches, in there are therefore ample grounds; and the great this city, and with the interior of this State prosperity which has attended the working of the neighboring State and Territories, and with other local associations in China clearly shows Mexico; also, with the Atlantic cities, Europe, that the largest profits are obtained by those China, and the East Indies; for which it is prolocal body of Proprietors or Shareholders whose support naturally forms a chief element of remu- Table Covers, of all kinds, Blankets, Sheetings, Corporation, Hongkong, dated the 25th May not incurred any official responsibility from the manner he has persecuted the O9th Regiment, we do not pretend to be able to judge. but if we may venture on an opinion, we As to the ingral responsibility which he has incurred, we submit there can hardly be difference of opinion. We are rather sur-

English, so selfish, should have so far as committed himself. He ordered the 99th 80 to move out of their comfortable barracks, and go to the Kowloon encampment, as Commander in Chief. That was perfectly on regle, and we are advocates of the principle which confers upon lably the Governor ex officio, the power thus to act. But Sir Hercules Robinson should know, and for any further information apply to must know, that soldiers are mon, and consequently that though they love their jokes still they think and feel like other folks. It is true that they are debarred from claiming the rights and privileges of citizenship, vet they are (aughit to believe; and to the oredit of the service (be at said, they do believe that those who have the control of them oberish their interests at heart; and this conviction encourages them to brave the plague and the battle field, with all that arder and devotion, for which the British soldier above all others is so justiv celebrated. Governor, Robinson therefore, in assuming the duties of Commander in Chief, of the Hongkong garrison, and in right of that office ordering the 99th to the Kowloon encampment, became the arbiter of the welfare of the troops whom he thus incommoded for municipal purnoses, and they naturally must have felt that he would drown all private resputment, Banking Company and becomes their protector as well as thour What then must have been their feelings,
